How we support you

We listen

When you make contact with us, we will arrange for our Community Engagement Advisor to visit you to discuss your individual needs and goals.

We support

We then support you closely to navigate the NDIS to ensure you are accessing all the funding and resources you are eligible for.

We connect

If we can't assist you we make sure we connect you with someone who can!

We act

When circumstances change in your life, we can work with you to reassess what supports are relevant to your changing needs.

Our services include:

Short Term Accommodation for Children & Adults

Support for children and adults taking a short break (respite) in one of Identitywa's houses.

Or...discuss your ideas with one of our experienced Planning Officers.

The chance to take a break away overnight is always a favourite for Simon who shares a SIL home with his four housemates.

"I like to go out with my support worker and really enjoy being surrounded by nature," says Simon.
