

Identitywa

eNews

27 August 2020

Government of Western Australia
Department of Communities

An office of disability discussion paper

The WA Minister for Disability Services, Hon Stephen Dawson MLC and the Department of Communities are inviting people to “Have your say on the establishment of an Office of Disability in WA”.

Resources have been produced to support the community engagement process to establish an office of disability. They are provided in a range of formats to be as accessible and inclusive as possible.

Click here for more information.

ndis Information Packs

The NDIA is working closely with the wider disability sector to provide specific information packs to support them through the coronavirus (COVID-19) situation.

Click here to go to the page.

Introduction to Communication workshop

27 October 2020

If your son or daughter has little or no verbal speech, then this workshop will guide you through current thinking about how to best support them.

Click here for more information and to register.

Happy 80th Birthday, Gloria!

Much-Loved housemate, Gloria, celebrated a major milestone recently – she turned 80!!

The Perth Archdiocese eRecord journalist, Amanda Murthy, reported on the significant occasion.

Click here to read.

Gloria had a fantastic time at her party. Pictured here cutting her beautiful birthday cake, photo with her housemates and being congratulated by Auxiliary Bishop Don Sproston.

The Royal Commission into Violence, Abuse, Neglect and Exploitation of People with Disability

You can share your experiences of violence, neglect, abuse or exploitation with the Royal Commission by making a submission or applying for a private session with a Commissioner.

Click here for more information.