NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission

Questions or more support

As an NDIS participant, you have the right to receive good quality services and be safe.

If you or anyone else has concerns about your NDIS support or services, ask for help.

It's OK to ask for help.

If you have questions or need more support, talk to people you trust.

This includes family or friends who can help you.

You can also talk to us, the NDIS Commission.

You can ask others for help too, including:

- appointed nominee from the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA)

- support coordinator

- Local Area Coordinator

- NDIA Planner

- Early Childhood Partner

- advocates

- advocacy groups

- service providers.

Anyone can contact us for general questions or to complain about NDIS services.

Everyone has choices on how to contact us.
